TEN MEN KILLED AT PROVIDENCE

Terrific Explosion of Gas in Mine Causes Instant Death of Two White Men and Eight Negro Miners at Providence Friday.

RESCUE WORK GOES ON ALL DAY SATURDAY.

Inspectors T. O. Long and A. G. Spillman, of This City

AND MR. SAMS, OF THE EVANSVILLE SUB-STATION

Were First to Enter Wrecked Mine—Helmets Used Proved that Has Been Claimed for Them.

Ten miners were entombed by an explosion in mine No. 3 of the Providence Coal Mining Company's workings Friday afternoon, following a gas explosion, and all are dead. The mine is a new one and the shaft was only 108 feet deep, but the force of the explosion was so great that the men were killed outright. Great masses of stone, slate and timber were hurled far from the mouth of the shaft and a mile from the lower level was blown one hundred feet from the shaft mouth.

At 9 o'clock Friday night a rescue train equipped with life saving devices was on the way to the scene from the Evansville, Ind., substation of the United States Bureau of Mines. The men in the wrecked mine were: Wesley Fugate and Ed Vaughn both white, and the following negroes: Charles Shackelford, John Woolfolk, Willis Rascoe, George Johnson, Bowley Johnson, Cal Northcutt, Louis Ligon, and Ed Butler.

The explosion occurred at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, just at shot firing time. Twenty men had been at work on the day shift, but ten of them left before the firing began. The mine is one of several owned by the Providence Mining Company of which W. J. Nisbet is president and general manager. For mer Attorney General Clifton R. Pratt is a large stockholder.

Assistant State Mine Inspector T. O. Long and A. G. Spillman, of this city, hurried to the scene of disaster, arriving at 7:15. Mr. Long immediately took charge of the rescue work. The fans had been started soon after the accident and mine was practically free from smoke by 10 o'clock. After working all night the first entrance was made at 7 o'clock Saturday morning by Inspector Long and Mr. A. G. Spillman, of this city, and Mr. Sams, of the Evansville Rescue Station. These three wore the helmets and at 8:30 a. m. brought out the first body that of Will Roscoe. Later on Thos. Longstaff, Carl Ramsey and Charlie Favors, of Providence, entered the mine and did rescue work.

Rescue Star Delayed.

On account of the car belonging to the Rescue Station at Evansville being on a tour of inspection at Linton, Ind., it was necessary for Congressman Boehne to send wire to Washington for permission for the car to come to Providence on a special train. This was done and the special arrived at Providence at six o'clock Saturday morning.

Cause of Disaster.

The cause of the disaster was from a windy shot. The men had set their last shot and were waiting for the cage to take them from the mine when the explo-

GREAT HISTORICAL PLAY

To be Given Under the Auspices of Presbyterian Church in Madisonville Tonight.

Great preparations are now being made for the grand spectacular home talent entertainment to be produced at Morton's Theater, Madisonville, tonight, November 29, under the auspices of the choir of the Presbyterian Church. Over one hundred of the best local talent of Madisonville will assist and present five scenes of the Scottish reformation, or the life of John Knox.

The entertainment opens with an allegorical prologue, the Rallying of the clans. This will be led by the puritans in the quaint garb of the times, followed by students, clan ladies and gentlemen, and Scottish Highlanders. The second scene shows the Puritans and students of Glasgow University on their way to Leith to meet the Queen. A short dialogue takes place in which a controversy arises, but finally all differences are adjusted and they join in singing two choruses. Some of the city's best male talent will take part in this and the singing will be a strong feature.

The most elaborate scene of the evening is the Court scene, showing Queen Mary surrounded by her Lords and ladies, and the Scottish guard. At command of the Queen John Knox appears before her majesty in a dramatic interview, and the serious and lofty speech of the character brings before us those stirring and warlike days when men died for their faith. The costumes worn in this scene are elaborate, gorgeous and historically correct.

The next scene is by far the most impressive, and possibly the most dramatic ever staged, showing the Queen just before her execution in her final farewell to her ladies in waiting, and closes with the march to her death.

The entertainment closes with a processional in which all take part singing the 124 Psalm.

Tickets are now on sale, and a large number have already been sold.

Aged Citizen Passes Away.

R. A. Smith died at his home on Wilson street Friday night at 8:30 o'clock of that dread disease, consumption. Mr. Smith had been ill a long time and the end was not unexpected. He was 62 years old and leaves a wife and six children, two girls and four boys to mourn his loss. He was a member of the Christian church. The funeral service was conducted from the residence Saturday afternoon by Rev. Brandon, of the Methodist church and the burial took place at Grapevine cemetery in the presence of a large number of friends and acquaintance.

Miner Wants Damages.

Garland Givins, a miner employed by the Nortonville Coal & Coke Company, has filed suit through his attorney, Lotcher Fox, against this company for $1,000 damages. He claims that while employed in the mines, slate, coal and rock fell on him, injuring him to such extent he will never recover.

For Willson Pardons Eleven.

Eleven negroes, convicted of the murder of one white man and wounding another, were pardoned by Governor Willson yesterday afternoon. They were sent to the penitentiary from Webster county in 1908.

MR. ATKINSON AND FAMILY ARE HOME FROM NEW JERSEY

Stood Journey Well and Expresses Pleasure at Being Home Again.

Mr. John B. Atkinson and family returned from New Jersey Saturday, reaching here on the 6 o'clock train via. Nortonville. The journey was broken by a stop over night at Louisville and the party reached here without unnecessary fatigue of travel.

Mr. Atkinson has been in ill health for some time and is still under the doctor's care. He has all along kept in touch with the business of his company and continues to do so here, though he will not just now be seen much about his office, but will keep to his home during bad weather and avoid unnecessary business details.

Mr. Atkinson has received and enjoyed the visits of quite a number of intimate friends during the short time he has been at home, and expresses to all his pleasure at being at home in Earlington again.

The E. A. C's Take the Second Game of the Series.

The Earlington Athletic Club basketball team took the second game of the series from the High School at the Rink Thursday night, Nov. 24. The score being 11 to 9. This game gave the athletics the championship of the city. The game was full of "doins" throughout. The Athletics played an exceptionally good game considering their lack of practice. While the High School boys played brilliant ball. The teams were evenly matched, but physical training of the club boys, substituted for their lack of practice, giving them the game. The athletes took the offensive in the first half of the game, but the E. H. S. warmed to their work, forcing the club boys to take the defensive in the second half. Curtis, for the athletics, played a magnificent game considering it his first game of the season. Martin, the doughty little left guard, played an excellent game for the E. A. C's. For the High School, R. Dudley was the star, as Professor, Jr., made it real interesting for Draper, the athletic crack forward.

The Earlington Athletic Club deserves praise for its splendid organization, as it has turned out winning teams in every branch of athletics, and is open to inspection by any of the parents of the boys who wish to see the club rooms and its equipment.

This basketball team has several games scheduled with Henderson Y. M. C. A., McLean College and other good teams and with a little practice will make it interesting for any amateur team of this part of the state.

Were written on his brow,
How many would our pity share,
Who have our envy now;
And if the promptings of each heart
No artifice concealed,
How many trusting friends would part

KENTUCKY TAKES ACTIVE PART IN Selling Red Cross Christmas Seals—To Have Hundreds of Agents.

Over one hundred towns in Kentucky have already taken up the sale of the Red Cross Christmas Seals. More of them taking up the fight every day. It is aimed to place the little Seals on sale in every city and town of one hundred inhabitants and over. $10,000 for the prevention of Tuberculosis in Kentucky this year is the slogan. Every body is helping; nobody gets any profit for selling the little Seals. They are doing it to help along the good cause. The National Red Cross gets 12 1/2 per cent. for furnishing the Seals and for the great quantities of advertising matter. The rest will be used to fight consumption in every county and village in Kentucky. Every citizen in the State will be benefited, therefore everybody should help by purchasing the pretty little Seals.

Few Kentuckians know that there are 20,000 cases of consumption in our State. That consumption is infectious and is not inherited. That consumption can be cured if taken in an early stage, but not with patent medicines. That consumption can be stamped out so that it will be as little known as Yellow Fever or Small Pox is today. That 6541 persons died in Kentucky last year from consumption and as many will die this and the next and every other year.

The money received from the Red Cross Christmas Seals will make it possible for the State Association to carry out its program of lectures and Health Exhibits, showing the people of Kentucky how to protect themselves against Tuberculosis by preventing its spread. Everybody can help by buying the Red Cross Christmas Seals.

Write to the Secretary of the Kentucky Association for the study and prevention of Tuberculosis, Eugene Kerner, 215 E. Walnut Street, Louisville, Kentucky.

THERE IS A REASON

Why it pays to advertise in the SEMI-WEEKLY BEE:

It reaches a large number of wage earners who take no other paper.

It has an almost exclusive circulation in a community where $50,000.00 in money is paid out each month.

It is read by hundreds of people who buy what they want and who have money to pay for what they buy.

The only way to get your advertisement before the people of Earlington, Morton's Gap, St. Charles and immediate vicinity is through the medium of the Earlington Bee. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

The man who knows how to differ gracefully from others, or, better still, who continues to admire and respect those who differ from him, possesses a virtue which is all to rare.

While it is true people do not believe in, "fairies these days, there are some good spirits" in the world that brighten and bless lives and homes if allowed to enter, and chief among these are contentment and love.

It is a mistake for parents not to enter into the amusement of children in the home. To leave them to find amusement for themselves if not best for either children or parents. It prevents that close sympathy, congeniality of tastes and spirit of comradeship that should always exist between the younger and older in every home.

It is significant that in these days of the advancing cause of temperance the business argument is resented far more than it used to be, while the moral argument is not relatively so prominent, though still much in evidence. This fact is on account of employers as a result of experience demanding men of clear minds and steady heads to do their work. Many a man to whom the moral question would not appeal becomes an earnest advocate of temperance and sobriety when the matter of dollars and cents are concerned.

Find Two Pounds of Powder in Lump of Coal.

The peculiar formation of a lump of coal he was about to put in his office stove, prompted L. D. Brothers, a merchant of Owingsville, Ky., to break it up before putting it in the stove. Inside the lump was found an unexploded charge of two pounds of giant powder, carefully tamped, fused and primed, presumably overloaded by the miners. The charge was sufficient to have caused some excitement and considerable damage.

Society Happenings

Miss Rule Hostess.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rule on East Main street, Miss Pansy Rule entertained in a charming manner about thirty guests Friday evening, which was pleasantly spent in music and lively social chat. An interesting feature being a bird contest, which all entered into and enjoyed. Refreshments of delicious cream and cake, nuts and mints were served, making in all, a delightful affair.

The East End Card Club met with Mrs. N. E. McKinnon on last Friday afternoon. Only Club members were present. A most enjoyable time was spent by those who were fortunate enough to be there. Mrs. Geo. Atkinson was the winner of every rubber. The hostess served ambrosia and cake and mints.

President Taft Favors the Ohio.

President Taft's "growing indifference" toward the deep-waterway movement and his "favorable leaning toward his own river," the Ohio, which was also spoken of as "official partiality," formed the subject of severe criticism in the address of W. K. Kavanaugh, president of the Lakes-to-the Gulf Deep Waterway Association, at the opening of the association's fifth annual convention at St. Louis yesterday.

The Semi-Weekly Bee one year and the Book for $1.50, price of book alone

The book comprises nearly four hundred large octavo pages, printed on fine paper and beautifully bound, with scores of magnificent, full page photograph engravings of scenes in the heart of Africa; its dark mysterious forests, mighty rivers and far stretching plains; with pictures of lions, elephants, giraffes and of other strange animals, hitherto unknown to civilization, that Theodore Roosevelt has killed.

What a scene for a thrilling story! Africa the Dark Continent, the Land of Mystery. Mere descriptions of it have always been interesting. The accounts of Livingstone and Stanley have sold heavily in United States, but the story of Theodore Roosevelt, who is one of us; the every day, intimate history as told by the friends and companions of his trip, has a fascination absolutely incalculable.

AD-TALK

What would you think of a salesman who reported for duty one day, lay off for two, worked a half day, went off for a week and so on without any regularity? Surely you would not expect good service from such a man. And yet some merchants hold advertising, which is simply a "salesman," up to great results when it is allowed to "work" very irregularly. The fact that advertising costs money is proof of its value. Things without cost are usually worth only their price.

Lecture and Entertainment Given by Miss S. Ethel Brown and Home Theatre Tonight at Morton's Theatre.

This is one of the most delightful entertainments of its kind before the public and is the first of the kind in this part of the country. In the number of participants, and the wealth and diversity of historic scenes and costumes the entertainment probably surpasses anything of the kind ever before attempted in Madisonville. The general effect produced by the "Triumphal Processional" and group pictures are superb. The bright gowns of the court ladies and the courtiers' gay attire over against the sombre black of the Puritans give an impression of mingled joy and sadness which characterized the spirit of the times. The entertainment is recommended.

The New Vital Statistics Bureau.

Bowling Green, Ky.,—Active preparations are being made here for the operation of the Bureau of Vital Statistics law, which goes into effect Jan. 1, 1911. This law provides for the reporting and recording of all births and deaths and the collection of morbidity statistics. It is a department of the State Board of Health and is one far-reaching in its importance to the welfare and lives of the people of Kentucky.

Kentucky has placed herself in the front rank of states doing most for the preservation of health and in the establishment of a Bureau of Vital Statistics she is the first of the entire south to take this long neglected step.

The State Registrar, Dr. W. L. Helzer, who will inaugurate and manage the Bureau of Vital Statistics, has just returned from an extended trip in Ohio, Michigan and Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C., where he studied the operation of the law in those states which are declared by Dr. Chessy L. Wilbur, chief statistician of the Federal Government to be the best in operation in the United States.

Today we stand alone in the light of a successful and progressive literary Magazine, devoted exclusively to the interest on the Southern and Western People. The field which we represent cannot be covered by any other publication, that is why we stand on solid ground. We are instrumental in the development of our Southern Industries. We give the people an opportunity to read of what is being done today. This is a brief outline of what the Taylor-Trattwood Magazine is doing. We are satisfied that this is the best one dollar and fifty cent magazine published, but we are not satisfied with our marketing list.
